GARY R MARKHAM JOINS RIMS '14 LINEUP OF EXPERT RISK MANAGEMENT & INSURANCE SPEAKERS

World's Largest Risk Management Conference Set for April 27-30 in Denver

New York, 19 February 2014: Gary R Markham, Chief Executive of LSG, has been selected to present at RIMS 2014 Annual Conference & Exhibition, the premier risk management and insurance conference. Gary R Markham will lead a panel discussion titled, "Claims Leakage Risk – How Technology Can Help Plug the Gaps" that will explore how technology enables stronger client or professional supplier relationships, leading towards greater cost containment and a reduction of the risk of claims leakage. The educational session is scheduled for Tuesday, April 29, 2014 from 11:30 AM - 12:30 PM.

"Technology continues to grow at an exponential pace, creating new enablers for companies across many industry verticals and sectors. LSG strives to stay ahead of the curve with its highly robust and secure technologies to provide unique solutions to its clients. I am honored to have the opportunity to discuss leakage risks in claims management at RIMS 2014." stated Gary R Markham.

Gary R Markham is the founder and Chief Executive of LSG. He has over 20 years of consulting and technology experience in the financial services industry and knowledge in the litigation and supplier/vendor management field. His philosophy is "be open to change and embrace it, as it's inevitable".

RIMS 2014 Annual Conference & Exhibition is a four-day conference scheduled for April 27 – 30 in Denver at the Colorado Convention Center. The event is renowned for its unmatched networking opportunities and, this year, will feature more than 160 educational sessions and host more than 350 exhibitors. Annually, the conference draws approximately 9,000 industry professionals from around the world.
