Brad Tait joins LSG as Sr. Business Development Executive - Australia

Sydney, 13th March 2016: LSG, the leading software application and business process outsourcing company announces the appointment of Mr. Brad Tait as Sr. Business Development Executive. In his new role he will be handling sales and business development for Australasia – Large Corporate, Governments, Insurers, Banks and financial institutions, Third Party Administrators and Underwriting Agencies.

Brad is a highly accomplished business executive with over 30 years of Australian and international experience in the financial services sector. He possesses expert knowledge in commercial insurance, commercial claims and underwriting, credit and risk management. With a driven inner passion for delivering customer success he applies significant experience in business process design from both a systems and people perspective.

With exposure to business in both free markets and regulated environments, his role will cover both sectors. On the one hand dealing with large corporates, small and medium size companies, community and faith based organisations and on the other hand, federal, state and local government authorities.

Gary R. Markham, Chief Executive, states "We are very pleased to have Brad on board in this senior business development role. As the changing market forces play out, especially in terms of the take up of new and merging technology solutions, LG is well placed, guided and supported by Brad's experience, technical knowledge and sheer enthusiasm."

Prior to joining LSG, Brad worked with Suncorp Group as a Product Manager where he managed claims of 161 NSW Government Agencies with a staff of 90. In the past he was also engaged with JLT Australia as NSW State Claims Manager.

Brad holds an Honours Degree in Commerce and will be based in Australia.
