LSG Launches Review My Legal Bill

New York, 17 July 2014: LSG, the leading software application and business process outsourcing company is pleased to announce its new initiative called "Review My Legal Bill" and the corresponding service website ReviewMyLegalBill.com. The service is a comprehensive, technology-enabled, expert solution for legal invoice review that will be in compliance with client requirements.

Review My Legal Bill will allow clients to receive quality legal invoice reviews and statistical analysis reports that the client may use to make better-informed decisions. A team of experts specializing in common law for the United States, Australia, United Kingdom, and European regions will conduct the audits and consultations. It will be used in conjunction with LSG's proprietary technology platform Advocator System which can further validate data and prevent human errors.

Gary R. Markham, Chief Executive, states "LSG is streamlining services to expand and appeal to a broader range of audiences. More clients will take greater advantage of this service that has never been offered in its simplest form before."
